Fall News

Enrichment Classes at Normandale

If you haven't yet registered for one of our Enrichment classes you are missing a fabulous opportunity. Mrs. Judy Sigvertsen, former classroom teacher at Normandale, presents many fun filled educational classes throughout the year. We just completed Rhyme Time for Reading... upcoming classes include:

1. Owls, Howls and Nighttime Growls, a one day class about nocturnal creatures! Friday, October 26
2. The Joy of Discover I, a science and experimentation class Fridays, November 9 & 16
3. Numbers R Us, explores mathematical concepts in a fun and engaging style. Fridays, January 11 & 18
4. The Joy of Discovery II, Fridays, February 15 & 22
5. Art Masterpieces, Mondays, March 11, 18 & 25
6. Acting Out, a drama and story-play class Fridays, April 12 & 19

*All classes meet from 9:00-11:30 AM

Stop in the preschool office to pick up a registration form!

Playground Renewal Project

Have you seen our new riding path and Cozy Dome? With help from the Normandale Foundation who donated $8,000 to our project, we were able to begin a renewal of the Normandale playground. Look for more play equipment to arrive this fall.

Open House and Family Concert

Tuesday, October 16

Musician, Ross Sutter, will be joining us at our Open House and Family Concert. Ross presents an interactive performance that is fun for all ages. His lively songs, games and cartload of unusual musical instruments draw the most reluctant listener into the act.

Preschool Open House
6:00-6:30 PM

Concert
6:30-7:15 PM

Bring the entire family!
